Re: Subpoenas issued in the matter of:
John Doe v. Sexsearch.com, et al.
United States District Court, Northern District of Ohio.
Case No. 3:07 CV 604

To Whom It May Concern:

This firm represents Cytek, Limited, the operator of web sites using the domain names sexsearch.com and sexsearchcom.com. We also represent several other individuals and entities alleged to be associated in one way or another with this web site. It has come to our attention that you have received, or may be about to receive, subpoenas to produce documents in connection with the above captioned case.

This letter is to notify you that the validity of this subpoena is in question. Certain of our clients have demanded that the attorney who issued this subpoena notify you that he is withdrawing the subpoena, immediately. It is our sincere hope that the subpoena will be voluntarily withdrawn.

If the subpoena is not voluntarily withdrawn, our clients intend to move to quash this subpoena. Please do not produce any information in response to this subpoena until the Court has had an opportunity to rule upon the necessity of a response to this subpoena. We will inform you immediately of the Court's decision regarding discovery.

You or your legal counsel may contact me at the above telephone number. Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation.

Very truly yours,
